

Notice to Property Owners:

All owners are responsible to make sure that lessees are actually farming or grazing the herein described property. Simply having an "agreement" with someone to use the property is not sufficient. In order for the property to receive Greenbelt consideration, it must be actively used for agricultural purposes. Both the Iron County Assessor's Office and the State Tax Commission conduct periodic usage audits.

INSTRUCTIONS: the owner of the property must fill out the upper portion of this statement. The lower portion must be filled out and signed by the lessee of the property.
